

Membership Application

Educating ourselves is a commitment we must make in order to advance in this very competitive world in which we live and work. We encourage active participation by all industry practitioners in order to maintain our profession at the highest possible standards. Joining NIPA ensures that you receive the industry education and peer networking opportunities that are vital in combating the daily challenges and changes you face. As an organization focused on the education of its members, NIPA provides you with the knowledge you need to stay ahead of the competition. And as a peer network dedicated to sharing knowledge among pension practitioners, NIPA is unsurpassed in providing you the access to information and answers you need to succeed in this profession.

Take action! To join our dynamic organization, simply return this Membership Application with payment. You'll be glad you did! NIPA memberships run on a July 1 - June 30 calendar and initial membership fees are based on your application date. We will immediately process your completed application and you will soon receive your membership card. You will begin receiving all NIPA publications and brochures on all the educational programming available to you as a member. You will also learn more about NIPA's professional designation programs and association-sponsored activities in which you can participate.
